

Edna Taylor

Edna Mae Taylor, formerly of Conde and Aberdeen, died June 28, 1985 in Albany, Ore. She was born February 5, 1910 at Groton, South Dakota. She graduated from Groton High School and Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen. She taught school in the area until her marriage to Robert C. Taylor in June of 1946. They were married in The Little Brown Church in the Vale, and made their home in Conde, where they had extensive farming interests. She was a member of the Episcopal Church in Groton, but was active in the Methodist Church in Conde. She loved music and played the piano and the violin. In 1970 she moved to Aberdeen where she lived until she moved to Oregon, in May of 1983.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert C. Taylor and her parents, Harry and Isabel Gillette. Burial services were held at Madras, Ore., on July 2, 1985. She is survived by her twin sister Wilma Coughlin of Albany, Ore.; a sister Audrey Ice of Pinedale, Wyo.; four nieces, Connie Guse of Cle Elum, Wash.; Judy Lundy of Albany, Ore.; Marilyn Fivecoat of Madras, Ore.; and Virginia Miller of Pinedale, Wyo., and by two nephews, Ramon Feller of Salt Lake City, Utah and James Feller of Kitanakagusuku, Okinawa, Japan. She is also survived by 32 great, and great, great nieces and nephews.